

A map of the Trout Lake area, indicating the March 3rd locations of 8 female boreal caribou that were equipped with satellite radio collars in March 2004. All animals were originally collared in the Celibeta Lake area due to caribou distribution at the time.

